Publication and Deadline Information:

The American Jewish World is published biweekly on Friday (26 issues annually), with display advertising deadline 12 noon Wednesday, nine days prior to publication.

General Policies and Terms:

Acceptance of advertisers and of copy is subject to the approval of the editor. The editor reserves the right to refuse any advertising copy.

The American Jewish World must be notified within seven days of first publication date of any error in an advertisement. Failure to do so will result in forfeit of and claim for credit or adjustment.

The liability of the editor for failure to publish an advertisement for any reason in the issue specified shall be limited to publishing the advertisement in a subsequent issue (at regular rates).

Advertisers and agencies forwarding orders to the editor which contain incorrect rates or conditions are advised that the advertising called for will be inserted and charged at the regular schedule of rates and conditions in force at that time.

The word "advertisement" may be inserted above any copy at option of editor.

The American Jewish World reserves the right to charge advertisers for what it considers excessive production requirements.

Any unfilled contracts will be subject to adjustment.

Statements are rendered the end of the month following insertion. All rates are net 30 days.

Classifieds:

Display ads on the Classifieds page are $20.00 per column inch.
