

THE AMERICAN JEWISH WORLD

A Weekly Journal of Modern Jewish Life and Labors

100 Years of Minnesota Jewish History

From the Archives of the American Jewish World

The American Jewish World published its first edition July 30, 1915. (An earlier publication, The Jewish Weekly, started in 1912, but folded after six months.) The newspaper will celebrate 100 years of continuous publication with a special edition on July 31, 2015.

The July 31 edition will feature articles from the AJW archives highlighting the broad sweep of historical events and notable Jewish individuals — in Minnesota, the United States and the world — covered by the newspaper.

We are encouraging synagogues, Jewish schools, agencies and organizations to contribute to this special edition, to share your history with our readers. Editorial submissions can be sent to the AJW's Community News Editor, Erin Elliott Bryan, at: community@ajwnews.com.

The deadline for advertising space reservations for the July 31 edition is 12 p.m. Wednesday, July 22. For information about ad rates and specifications, or any questions about the special edition, please contact Mordecai Spektor at 952-259-5234 or: editor@ajwnews.com.
