

Honoring Our Graduates

The American Jewish World will publish a special section, “Honoring Our Graduates,” in the June 2021 issue.

AJW readers are encouraged to send in photos of their high school and college graduates along with a brief bio (information about college or career plans, honors), which should not exceed 60 words. (There is a $10 charge for photo processing).

Submissions for “Honoring Our Graduates” must be received by 12 p.m. Wednesday, May 26.

Send digital photos and copy to: community@ajwnews.com, or mail photos and hard copy to: American Jewish World, 3249 Hennepin Ave. S., Suite 245, Minneapolis, MN 55408.

For information, call 612-824-0030.

For businesses interested in advertising in the June special section, contact Mordecai Specktor at 612-824-0030 (editor@ajwnews.com).
